National Foreclosure Mitigation Counseling Program Foreclosure Mitigation Counseling Agreement/Disclosure Form

I understand that Scott County CDA provides foreclosure mitigation counseling after which I will receive a written Action Plan consisting of recommendations for handling my finances, possibly including referrals to other housing agencies as appropriate.

I understand that Scott County CDA receives Congressional funds through the National Foreclosure Mitigation Counseling (NFMC Program) and it is required to share some of my personal information with the entities as described and acknowledged in the "Combined Privacy Act Notice and Tennesen Warning," for the purposes of program monitoring, management, compliance, and evaluation.

I understand that a counselor may answer questions and provide information, but not give legal advice.

I understand that, in addition to foreclosure mitigation counseling,

Scott County CDA also provides the following types of services:

Development, redevelopment, subsidized rentals, & homebuyer education and counseling.

I understand that Scott County CDA is required to fully disclose potential and actual conflicts of interest so that I am in a position to make fully informed decisions.

I understand that Scott County CDA or one of its foreclosure mitigation counselors may have one of the following conflicts through referral or in fact:

- We hold or service a mortgage secured against your property and have a stake in the performance of the loan;
- We purchases, redevelop, and sell, for a fee, properties at risk of, or involved in foreclosure;
- We receive financial support from mortgage servicer or investor. Payment may be based on acceptance of a loss mitigation offer.

Program Services Disclosure

Purpose of Housing Counseling: I/we understand that the purpose of the homeownership counseling program is to provide one-on-one counseling to help consumers fix problems that prevent affordable mortgage financing. The counselor will analyze my/our financial and credit situation, identify those barriers preventing me/us from obtaining affordable mortgage financing and develop a plan to remove those barriers. The counselor will also provide assistance with preparing a monthly and manageable budget plan. I/We further understand that it will not be the responsibility of the counselor to fix the problem for me/us but rather to provide guidance and education to empower me/us in fixing those issues preventing affordable mortgage financing.

Eligible Criteria: I/We understand that the counseling agency providing housing counseling assistance to customers whose problems can be resolved in 24 months or less. I/We understand that if it is determined my/our issues will take longer than 24 months to fix, I/We will be referred to a long-term housing counseling program.

Homeownership Education Classes: I/We understand that as part of the housing counseling program, I/we may attend group education classes as desired.

Customer's Responsibility: I/We understand that it is our responsibility to work in conjunction with the counseling process and that failure to cooperate will result in discontinuation of my counseling program.

Our Services are:

Homebuyer Counseling- assists with resolution of barriers of homeownership through one-on-one counseling. This includes but is not limited to an assessment of housing needs (a look at income, debt, credit, savings), development of an action plan with goals for helping achieve mortgage readiness and homeownership, and discussing affordable mortgage, down payment, and closing cost programs.

Homebuyer Education- provides general information on the home buying process to a group of potential homebuyers, in a classroom setting. This includes but is not limited to information on how credit affects becoming a homeowner, understanding mortgage programs and processes, shopping for a home, home inspections, closing process, home maintenance, and avoiding foreclosure.

Foreclosure Counseling- foreclosure counseling may be in-person or over the phone and helps determine the reason for the delinquency and to work with the homeowner to bring the mortgage current when possible. This can include but is not limited to discussing the mortgage foreclosure process, assistance with budgeting in a time of crisis, assessing the viability of maintaining the home, collecting the documentation necessary to demonstrate hardship and a plan of action to a lender, navigating the workout process, and finding alternative housing solutions if foreclosure is inevitable.

While you learn about the advantages/disadvantages of specific loan products, you are free to choose lenders, loan products, and homes of your own choosing regardless of the recommendations made by counselors or educators during Home Stretch Homebuyer Education or Pre-Purchase Homebuyer Counseling. Clients are under no obligation to use any realtor, lender, home inspector, or other parties that are recommended or mentioned by the agency.
